Introduction

A Different Kind of Memecoin

Every day, new memecoins are launched. Most begin with hype. $DINKY began with a duck.

$DINKY is a Solana memecoin built around Dinky, a real special needs duckling with wry neck who went viral on TikTok (@dawgsandducks, 170K+ followers, 100M+ views). Dinky started capturing the internet's heart only days before the token was launched. His determination resonated with millions of people overnight.

Today, $DINKY represents more than a cryptocurrency. It represents resilience, creativity, transparency, and a community committed to building together. What started as a story about one small duck learning to navigate the world differently has grown into a community, “the flock,” united around a simple idea: build, hold, moon, together.

Dinky is half magpie, half Indian runner duck. Wry neck causes his head to tilt, but it hasn't slowed him down. His story of resilience is the heart of the project, and “Indian runner” carries a second meaning the flock knows well. Dinky also shares his world with his brothers Pancake, Salt, and Chud, who all play a role in the growing world of Dinky universe content and lore being built around them.

Unlike most memecoins, $DINKY wasn't launched by an anonymous team looking to capitalize on a trending animal. It was created by Dinky's own caretakers, the same people who have raised him since birth and shared his story from day one. That direct connection means the people behind $DINKY are the same people who know and love Dinky best, with every reason to protect his story and build something lasting around it.

Vision

$DINKY exists to turn a genuine, wholesome viral story into a real community with staying power, not a pump-and-dump. The goal of $DINKY has never been to create short-term excitement. Our goal is to build a recognizable community-driven brand around an authentic story through content, culture, and an active community rather than hype alone.

We believe the strongest communities aren't manufactured. They're earned.

Everything we create, from artwork and videos to future collectibles and community initiatives, is designed to strengthen that vision.

Guiding principles:

- Community before hype
- Build. Hold. Grow.
- Transparency builds trust
- One community, one mission, one moon
- Every holder matters

Token Overview

$DINKY launched as a 100% fair launch on pump.fun.

- No presale
- No private allocation
- No insider pricing

Every holder, including the founder, purchased tokens through the same public bonding curve.

Following graduation, liquidity migrated to PumpSwap with liquidity permanently burned by pump.fun, creating a decentralized trading market for the community.

Founder Stake Breakdown

Dev wallet: G78ufSBHzMz9XQiTSKeDc7ParVXxSpZkyPtR6euptgLa

The dev wallet bought on the open market at launch, same as every other holder. The original 137.8M allocation has been distributed as follows:

- 67,510,000 locked via Streamflow (1-year lock, cliff release May 1, 2027)
- 37,130,000 allocated to team, in two tranches
- 33,160,000 remaining unlocked founder position

Community Fund

3HKMqzCNxLzsrinUaUZAtcGGFf2ox8Xzyo89brQimgre

The Community Fund exists exclusively to reward the people helping build the flock. Exclusively for community rewards: meme contests, raffles, and community drops. Developer-controlled wallets are excluded from all distributions.

Treasury

2qpyUYuFGCQY2wDmY9gLaHVvFDRTex4zy2XXZk5c6BLE

The treasury exists to accelerate growth while maintaining transparency. Funds partnerships, operational costs, exchange listings, and marketing. Every transaction is announced publicly 24 hours before execution, allowing the community visibility into how funds support the project's growth.

Founder Commitment

Rather than receiving free tokens before launch, the founder purchased through the public market.

To demonstrate long-term commitment to the project, a significant portion of the founder allocation has been locked via Streamflow.

This structure aligns the team's incentives with the long-term success of the project and provides transparency into wallet distribution.

Treasury Commitments

Trust is earned through actions, not promises. The project follows several operating principles intended to keep the community informed and aligned.

Public Treasury

Treasury activity is communicated publicly before major transactions whenever practical.

Responsible Treasury Management

Treasury conversions are performed gradually to minimize unnecessary market disruption.

Long-Term Alignment

Founder holdings remain aligned with the long-term success of the project through locked allocations and transparent wallet tracking.

Community First

Community reward wallets exist solely for community initiatives and are never distributed to developer-controlled wallets.

Roadmap

Six phases. One little duck. Zero doubt about where this is going.

Phase 6 — Moon & Beyond

Dinky to the Moon!

- Top-tier CEX listings (Binance, Coinbase)
- Global brand partnerships
- $DINKY animated series & content
- Dinky becomes a household name

Community & Culture

The Flock

The community is the foundation of $DINKY.

Rather than relying on artificial engagement or short-term promotion, growth is driven through authentic participation, creativity, and consistent community involvement.

Members contribute through:

- Original artwork
- Memes
- Videos
- Community discussions
- Content creation
- Educational posts
- Welcoming new members

As the project evolves, additional initiatives including digital collectibles, children's storytelling, animation, and expanded creative content will continue growing the Dinky universe beyond the token itself.

Risk Disclosure

$DINKY is a memecoin. Like all cryptocurrency assets, it carries risk, including but not limited to price volatility, liquidity risk, and the general risks associated with early-stage decentralized tokens. This document is for informational purposes only and is not financial advice. Always do your own research (DYOR).

Closing

Every cryptocurrency project begins with a token. $DINKY began with a story.

Dinky's story is one of resilience — wobble, roll, try again. $DINKY carries that same spirit forward: an authentic community built on something real, moving together, one flock. The mission remains the same:

One Mission. One Moon One Destination Only.
